What Do You Want?

We (Matthew Hartsfield, Lisette Andersson, Ed Artau) are your student activities facilitators. Our job is to help you plan worthwhile activities for the Day Division. Facilitator is the key word. We are a go-between for the students and administration.

Your job as a student is to get involved. Please feel free to stop any of us in the hall and talk to us about your ideas. We will be glad to help you get them publicized and started. If you have any club or organization that you would like to see happening please see us. Some of you already have, and we appreciate that initiative.

You also have another job. You must check the bulletin boards every day and read each edition of this newsletter. Most of all you need to participate as much as possible. What do you want?

Matthew Hartsfield
