UNLOCK THE DOOR TO YOUR FUTURE

CENTER PHILOSOPHY

The Center for Psychological Studies has a tripartite mission. It provides quality educational experience and training in psychology. It encourages the advancement of knowledge through research. Finally, it provides high-level psychological services to a variety of individuals with varying needs.

MAIN CAMPUS FORMAT

The master's program at the Main Campus in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, is organized in the traditional semester format. Classes meet once a week during the fall and winter semesters and twice a week during the summer semester.

FIELD BASED FORMAT

The field-based format is often referred to as a "weekend format." Each individual course spans an eight-week period, with class time concentrated into two full weekends. Courses are offered one at a time and are scheduled from August through June.

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

The Master's Program in Mental Health Counseling was designed for the continued professional development of persons who presently serve or will serve their community in a variety of counseling capacities. Master's training is based on a developmental model that emphasizes interdisciplinary collaboration, prevention of dysfunction, and direct service.

The Master's Program in School Guidance and Counseling, also based on a developmental model, prepares students to function as guidance counselors in school systems.

WHY YOU SHOULD CHOOSE
