Orientation: In The Eyes of New Students
by Michsne zornier

I am a transfer student from University of Cincinnati. Orientation at Nova was a new experience for me. During Orientation Week, I have met many new people and gained new friends.

One of the more impressive events of orientation was the welcoming ceremonies, which cleared my mind of many questions. The speeches were informative, and the speakers made me feel at ease with what they were saying.

Then there were workshops like Survival Training! It sounds like a frightening experience, but it was an informative and helpful process. Another interesting program was the Majors workshop for students.

This was extremely helpful. I wanted to make sure that the Psychology major was the one I really wanted to aim for. This session enhanced my decision, and I am sure I will work towards a Psychology degree.

I attended every workshop, the ones that I found interesting, ideal, and informative. Many felt that college needs to be 100% serious all of the time. It does not. There is time for studying and time for socializing. Although this past week happened to be for both, the afternoons and evenings were reserved for fun.

On the first day of orientation, the Student Orientation Staff convinced many people to sign up for team sports and games. At first, I felt intimidated about playing Games with complete strangers, but after a few games, I did not want to stop. We were all good sports and did not mind when we lost, because we were having fun.

Some of the games that we played were NovaOlympics, Tag-O-War, canoe racing, volleyball, and basketball. I even managed to make a few new friends.

A FEW WORDS TO THE EDITOR...

Dear Editor,

As a new student at Nova University, I have had the opportunity to meet many great (student) leaders.

Recently, I have received some of the most upsetting news about one of these great leaders. Brian Oullette, Editor-in-Chief of the Nova College yearbook, has resigned.

Whenever you spoke with Brian, you could see the excitement in his eyes. He was more than ready to put all of his time and effort into this yearbook.

I am truly saddened by the prospect that my first year at Nova may never be recorded in a yearbook.

My first year is going to be a precious one, and I truly believe that Brian is the man we need to capture all of our memories.

Dear Editor,

During the past year, I have had the opportunity to get to know Brian (Oullette) both as a friend and as a student leader.

I saw him working on the yearbook last year and the final result was excellent!

Having seen previous yearbooks, the 1990 Paladin was a definite improvement. The people, including faculty, who have criticized it so harshly are wrong!

Yes, everything can always use improvement, however, if we do not celebrate the positive changes then they will eventually cease to exist.

Lisa Mueller
S.G.A. President

Dear Editor,

I do not know Brian (Oullette), and I do not understand the events that led up to his resignation.

I do know, however, that a yearbook is an essential part of the college experience. When I look back on my years at Nova I would like to have a pictorial record of them.

Personally, I feel that whatever conflicts have arisen over this need to be resolved in the best interests of Nova and all who are involved.

Dear Editor,

Nova University is finally growing. We have great student leaders holding some of the most vital positions among the various student organizations. Brian Oullette being a case in point.

After coming back from a motivating and helpful conference, these student leaders have grown and are excited about the work ahead.

Brian had received the new software for the yearbook and he could not wait to begin.

It is quite obvious to myself, and others, that Brian was motivated and full of ideas for the upcoming year. To hear that he has turned in his resignation is sad not only for me, but for the continued growth of Nova.

Don't stunt the growth of Nova, Nourish it!

Why doesn't the schedule of classes ever have the name of the teacher next to each course? The schedules will now contain these names, if they are known at the time the schedule is printed.

Why doesn't the Parker building have a decent lounge? Basically, the second floor lounge area is used by students between classes. The Rosenthal Student Center is the newest, and an essential, addition to the Nova community.

The RSC has everything from a pool table to a large screen Television. We have a great Student Center so get on over there and lounge!

A Few Words From The Editors...

Welcome back returning students! Hello again not-so-new students! As I said before in the Orientation Issue, this is the beginning of a new dawn of Nova's Student Life. My statement has been reinforced by an excellent Orientation Week. I would like to thank: Orientation Staff Coordinators; Brad Williams, Director of Student Life; Dean DeTurk, and everyone else who contributed to this most successful chain of events I have participated in at Nova.

Now I would like to introduce my staff who have returned from vacation: Wendy L. Myers, Layout Editor; Addie Gonzalez, Nova Life Editor; Sandra Watson, Local New Editor; Mark Bizokas, Entertainment Editor; and reporters: Angela Gilmore, Elizabeth Rompeneau, Christine Tapper, and Meredith Horn.

Together we will bring the Knight to a new level of professional quality and charisma. With a staff of people from diverse backgrounds and cultures, it is my personal goal to continue to both unify the student body and increase the awareness of students, staff, administrators and the surrounding community. It is a time for change and the time is now. With your constant support of letters, articles, review and interest, we will help make Nova a better place to attend.

Addie Gonzalez
Coordinator of Orientation; Terry Mullens, Amy Grant.

A Few Words From The Editors...

I am so excited about this year! Great things are going to happen at Nova, and I get to be a part of it. This is my first year at Nova, and my first year as the Layout Editor of the Nova Knight. As an incoming junior, transferring from a small community college in Kan., I am thrilled to be a part of the paper in a year that is sure to be the best ever.

As the Layout Editor, my goal is to help make the Nova Knight pleasing to the eye and worthy of the time it takes you to read it. I will also be writing monthly on issues that concern us all as students, citizens, and human beings.

I encourage you, as the student body, to bring your concerns to the paper, so your voice too, may be heard.

Student Leadership Conference
F.S.L.A.T.E.: TOMORROW'S TEACHERS TODAY

It is with great pleasure that I welcome all members of the Florida Student Leaders Association of Teacher Educators to the 1990-91 school year at Nova University. I am looking forward to an exciting series of seminars that Vice President Tim Tait has put together. I am dedicated to helping future teachers become attractive, marketable professionals that will help secure a position in the teaching profession.

A great deal of progress has been made over the summer months, and it could not have been possible without the continued support of the Education Department at Nova. FSLATE was called upon to perform its first project in assisting with guided tours of Nova to students from Lake Dale Elementary, who are members of an organization called Teachers of Tomorrow (TOTTS).

The program, initiated in Broward County, exposes children at the elementary school level to the teaching profession with the hope that their careers will someday be in education. Their field trip to Nova University was a great success! Thanks to FSLATE member Fredrika Delevoe for her assistance in the guided tours, Education Department Secretary Arlene Morris for the Nova gifts for the students, and to the Education Instructors who helped with the presentation. Your help was very much appreciated! And most of all, thanks to our Faculty Advisor Dr. (Paul) Borthwick, for arranging the field trip and giving FSLATE its first project.

The election of the Executive Board was also held this summer, which I believe will be a good one. Committees are also being banded by the Board in Pre-Voc, Budget, and Programs. If you are interested, a meeting will be held Saturday, September 15th, following the induction ceremonies for new members. See Alpha Chi's bulletin board for more information.

Open to all students! This newly formed organization works with admissions in helping orient new students to college life and those students currently applying to Nova. Sign up now!

Student Communications Center: Assistant Business Manager position has been filled. The congratulations go to Sandra Watson, a freshman in the Professional Studies program. Her major is business. Watch for the next issue, featuring an article on the Business department of the Student Communications Center.

If you have information for the Club Bulletin or if there is a new club forming, contact Addie Gonzalez at extension 5767 or leave the information, along with a contact person's name and number, in Student Communications Center (first floor Rosenthal).

Phi. Alpha Delta Newsbrief

by Lloyd Assarnow

Welcome returning and new students, from Nova University's Pre-Law Chapter, PHI ALPHA DELTA (PAD).

The fraternity wants to stress that PAD is open to all people who would like to join. PAD is not just for those students in the Legal Studies program, or those who wish to go to law school. It is for everybody.

Our first meeting was on August 28th. If you were unable to attend, but are interested, see our bulletin board on the second floor of the Parker building, across from Student Affairs.

Posted on the board you will find the minutes from our first meeting. Contact one of the officers if you have any questions.

Our second meeting was held on Tuesday, September 4th. This meeting was the official start of our two week rush period.

Rush week will include speakers, luncheons, social events, and many more fun activities. A few topics that will be covered by the officers if you have any questions.

If you would like to be a member of PHI ALPHA DELTA, come to our meetings or contact one of the officers. The officers' phone numbers are on the bulletin board. Any information you need can be found there, or you can give an officer a call.

Also, Joe Lokvitch is the advisor for PAD. If you cannot get in touch with an officer and there is no information posted on the board, contact Lori Savva, Coordinator of Student Activities.

The Campus Revolution is Now!!!

by ALVEMICE N. SWAIN

Everyone likes to have fun and be accepted. Students are faced with making decisions in order to “fit in” and to be socially accepted.

Some of the most important and confusing social issues you will be confronted with revolve around alcohol. Decisions concerning these social issues can be tough, when you are pressured by your peers.

Knowing the FACTS enable you to make a better choice for yourself!

Boost Alcohol Consciousness Concerning the Health of University Students—BACCHUS IS US!

We are confronting the dangerous practice of accepting or encouraging irresponsible drinking attitudes and behavior.

We are working to provide positive peer support to help other students moderate their drinking, as well as maximize a college experience we don’t want you, or ourselves, to miss.

BACCHUS does not say that you cannot drink, but if you feel that you would like to, you must learn to do it responsibly.

As a club, we help to educate you with the proper procedures for safe sipping.

Poetry Circle

The Poetry Circle is looking for people who are interested in sharing their poems, or just listening to others read their work.

The purpose of our club is to offer poets a source of constructive criticism so that they may improve their writing, as well as a forum to share their work.

in the past the Poetry Circle has brought published poets on campus for readings and has culminated each year with a celebrity dinner.

As well, the president of the Poetry Circle is looking forward to creating an Arts Club this year. This club would allow artists to come together and interact.

Hopefully after one or two years the Arts Club could be divided into separate clubs.

Until then it will consist of sub-clubs all coming together in a play to be presented in February.

If you are interested in any of the above please contact: Harry Stone at 424-8213.

Commitment
The touch of a hand, thick air escaping between my trembling fingers. All I ever wanted, softly given, mistakenly. Thrashing around without sense, impaling others with love, kisses like accusations in winter's breath. Accepting my love is losing the game, no respect to those who are defensive.
The only way to win is not to play the game, making your own rules. Graveyards beckon to those who forget childhood, giving up subjective reality. Cowboys and Indians, children reforming the laws of physics. Point blank misses, the art of compromise, the absurdity of all, too high a price to pay for security.

Poetry in Motion
When you find yourself locked in a room, with no key nor door in sight, I come for you on velvet stars, and share my love for you. When you mourn in ancient lands, I will mourn as well, finding comfort in your touch. And we will stand beneath a raging moon, finding ourselves melting into one another, when you have need of me...
I will be there.

Truth
May not be necessarily true
But only what we believe in fact many times it is What we chose to believe
We have faith in our opinions
But it is really truth to Truth has little to do with Right or Wrong
But if the masses will accept it.
Evidence can be slanted
Or perceived
Or Expressed
To promote a "true" quite easily
But truth is more than a belief
That we share
That we've created
To hide our insecurities
Yes we chose our realities
To please us
We chose our truths
To please us
An see ourselves as gods.

The Nova Knight
FIU Just Gets By with 3-2 Victory

By Scott Vrabels
Edited by Encl Bodle

Hollywood, Fl. (Brian Piccolo Park)

A crowd of over two hundred witnessed both Nova University's and FIU's first contest of the season as FIU scored a 3-2 victory over the Knights. With the Knights playing on their new home field, FIU gained control with a 2-1 lead during the first half of the game. They then went on to score again, 30 seconds into the second half. Nova's Cory Sheffield brought the Knights within a goal (3-2) at the 58 minute mark but FIU hung on for the victory.

"First game jitters and a young squad of players cost us two very easy early goals," stated Nova Head Coach, Hal Henderson. "I was very happy with the effort that our players gave us tonight. We're not going to make many changes going into our next match, we'll just have to keep working hard."

Although there was sufficient practices, not every player came prepared, but those who were really came out to play. Overall, the team was successful and played hard the second half of the game. "We could have won that game," replied Coach Henderson. "Take away those unforced errors, and we could have won."

When asked about his reactions about the game, FIU's head coach replied, "Well, I thought that it was an exciting game. Defensively, we gave Nova all sorts of room and time to make plays and we ended up chasing rather than anticipating early challenges to the ball. That's what I was concerned with the most. That was not the way we wanted to play and we certainly could have done better. Nova played well and it was a tough game but we should have had more control."

Coach Henderson is looking forward to a great year and apart from losing four of their top scorers, the Knights can still do it. Nova's next two games are Sun. 9-16 @ UCF & Fri. 9-21 home Embry-Riddle University.

Editor's note: Contact Athletic Department for the times of the games.

She practices, two hours a day, five days a week.

She's a "baseliner" who rallies fast and furious, and she's Nova's number one Singles player--Aka Ali.

She comes from a family of hard-hitting tennis personalities. "A few of my aunts began to train me at twelve years of age and from then on, I have used the game as an anti-depressant," she expressed.

She learned about Nova University from tennis scouts Pet Peeves; loud and boisterous people.

She has a choice of a few schools, consequently, I picked out the college that met my professional as well as academic preferences," she concluded.

Some of her favorite Tennis personalities are in the top ten in the world according to the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP).

They are: Chris Everett, Zina Garrison, Steffi Graf, and Yannick Noah.

She has a choice of a few schools, consequently, I picked out the college that met my professional as well as academic preferences," she concluded.

Everyone on the Nova Knight wishes Aka continued success.

Aka, like other top-seeded players enjoy their ranking, but experience a downside.

"When you are highly ranked, it causes a lot of stress."

"If I lose a match, it would be stressful, because I believe that I let others down as well as myself," she replied.

She does not intend to lose many matches, because she aspires to be ranked within the top seventy-five in the world.

She learned about Nova University from tennis scouts Pet Peeves; loud and boisterous people.

Favorite Singers: Anita Baker, Janet Jackson, Patti Labelle Diana Ross.

Favorite Actress: Rae Dawn Chong.

Favorite TV Shows: The Cosby Show, Sesame Street.

Favorite Movies: Pet Semetery, Friday 13th part 1, and most horror movies.

Most memorable B-day: Sweet Sixteen.

Hobbies: Table Tennis.

The best advice that I could give to my fellow classmates on Tennis: "Don't stop trying. The more one plays, the better one is. Don't take losses too seriously."
Martin:

By Sandra Watson

Martin loves the Army, and would recommend the R.O.T.C. and the Army to anyone. "Even if you are not interested in a career in the army, go just for the skills," he responded enthusiastically. "My study habits have improved 100%," he added.

Martin could hardly stop raving over the many benefits that the R.O.T.C. has to offer. "I received $48,000 in tuition for higher education at the University of Miami," he stated happily.

In addition to his resident advising position, Martin is also a Lieutenant in a local army R.O.T.C. unit. "I have a great love for adventure, discipline, friendship and the experience that I have gained in leadership," he replied. "I find much of it in mock drills and war games," he stated.

Martin is also the Liberal Studies Computer Advisor. "I teach MicroSoft Works, answers questions about DOS, UNIX, and ShellScripts," he concluded.

Hobbies: Telecommunications, Basketball, and Matchbook collecting.

Favorite Radio Stations: Power 96., and New Coast, "We'll see about WNKIR"

Favorite Actors: John Cusak, Demi Moore, Kim Bassinger.

Favorite Movie: Say Anything, Running Scared.

Favorite TV Shows: Cheers, Star Trek: The Next Generation.

One of the most worthwhile events that I have been a part of at Nova: R.A. bonding retreat, "We did amazing things."

One of the most embarrassing events that I have been apart of at Nova: Attending an R.A. dinner and spilled a frozen Rum and quotes the ever famous Runner all over myself in the presence of numerous Nova faculty members.

SPOTLIGHT ON: George Carpey

George, Carpey: Incoming freshman from Long Island, New York, is one of the many faces we will see around campus this year. He is a Secondary Education major and plans to teach English. In addition, he is an avid soccer player. He has played for ten years and has received over twenty four awards, both high school and community team. He was previously involved in other activities such as the Leader's Club, Students for Action, and Student Council Treasurer. He would like to continue his high school success at Nova. "I hope to have Success here at Nova and do very well in my academics," he stated. "I want to achieve excellence," he affirmed.

By Cleveland Feigus

Angela Davis, named after the famed civil rights activist, is student of the week for her unusual fashion designing talent.

Angela designs clothes for many people and finds herself making their fantasy wardrobes come alive.

"Once you begin sewing for someone, they come back with various designs that either can be done, can be done to a certain extent or simply can not be done because of the kind of material," she expressed.

You don't have to be Norman Miller, Jacaqueine Smith or Bill Blass to be able to design outfits.

"Everyday people design for themselves, they just don't know how it can be put together.

"Similarly, if a person gets an outfit in department store, it may be too costly," she informed.

"Being that I know how to sew and can produce outfits that are affordable, I become their designer," she said.

Angela is the daughter of eight sisters, her father's three sisters, her two brothers, and grandmothers as well.

Looking at Angela's collection of diverse styles of business, evening and casual wear, she could easily be the next Liz Clairborne.

Editor's note: Angela welcomes anyone who wants clothing made to contact her at the Sewing Hotline: 1208F95M or 99WARM.

SPOTLIGHT ON: Angela Davis

Three words that would best describe me: Esoteric, Determined, Creative.

Favorite Sports: Softball, Basketball, Track.

Favorite Singers: Anita Baker, En Vogue, Stephanie Mills, Patti Labelle, Luther Vandross, Keith Sweat, MC Hammer.

Favorite TV Show: A Different World.

Favorite Actors: Eddie Murphy, Cicely Tyson.

Favorite Movie: Fatal Attraction.

Personal Heroes: Mom and Dad.

Hobbies: Fashion Designing, Cooking.

One of the most worthwhile events that I have been a part of: Thurstonian Wacky Olympics.

If there are a few things that I resolve to do every year, they are: losing weight, completing an entire wardrobe, and saving as much money as I want to.

Most memorable 8-Day: 19th, had surprise party in the dorms.

Editors note: Watch out for Angela's College Recipes in issues to come!
