STYLE GUIDE

Submissions for consideration may be in any form AND should include

- an abstract, preferably no longer than 125 words,
- the complete mailing address of the author designated to make revisions.

While submissions for consideration may be in any form, the following format is required for the final draft upon acceptance. Please submit a short biographical statement.

I. TEXT

In-text references are used with the full information of references placed at the back of the paper (in a section titled "References"). When specifically referring to the author in the text, please use the following style CONSISTENTLY:

- a (Galtung, 1996, p. 2)
- b. Galtung (1996, p. 2)

When listing multiple sources within text – (Alger, 1996; Axelrod, 1984).

When unquestionably necessary, endnotes should be used.

Single space endnotes, the main text, and block quotes.

Indent for each paragraph; No extra spaces between paragraphs.

Italicize titles of journals, documents, court cases, and books which are referred to in the text.

For the first usage, spell out acronyms in full – e.g., Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs).

British and American spellings/formats may be used. For example, centre or center, programme or program, and 15 May 1995 or May 15, 1995 are accepted. However, please maintain consistency throughout the text.

Define terms clearly and, if possible, avoid jargon. Do not use ibid, etc, or similar terms.

Headings must be centered and in Bold. Subheadings must be italicized (left justification). Do not use all caps for either.

Tables and figures must not be any larger than 6 1/2 inches by 8 1/2 inches. Tables and figures must be in the same word processing program as the document.

Do :

1. use Word or Word Perfect 6.1 (or newer).
2. be CONSISTENT within your manuscript.
3. submit the text, endnotes, tables, figures, and references in ONE file document.

Do not use:

1. page headers or footers in the electronic version.
2. page numbers or a title page in the electronic version.

II. REFERENCES

List references alphabetically in the "References" section at the end of the paper.

Use a person's full name.

Roman numerals need to be converted to arabic numerals, as in volume numbers of journals and books.

Titles of books and journals must be italicized.

Multiple citations of the same author should be listed with the most recent first.

List only references used in text.

Information about books, journals, and magazines must be written in the following manner:
