As It Should Be

Emily Pearl

Everything is as it should be Simple
Not delightful or eventful
A rebel would venture to call this life drab
The cobblestone streets are cold with snow
The people walk quickly in their winter coats, searching for nothing
Then it happened – fireworks

She flew gracefully on the winds of carnival
Just as the forbidden fairies do Her color, her character, all an unnecessary attraction
She tapped the wells of emotion in everyone Letting each overflow and erupt with happiness
Now as the cold winds depart, so does the chill in the heart of every person
Everything is as it should be Beautiful
