Dr. Julian M. Pleasants is professor emeritus of history at the University of Florida (UF), where he taught for thirty-nine years. Pleasants served as director of the Samuel Proctor Oral History Program at UF from 1996 to 2008. He taught more than 11,000 students in his career at UF and was the recipient of more than a dozen teaching awards. He was chosen for inclusion in Who’s Who Among American Teachers, Who’s Who in America, and Who’s Who in the World. He is the author and editor of eight books and numerous articles in various publications. His books on Florida include Hanging Chads: The Inside Story of the 2000 Presidential Recount in Florida (2004), Orange Journalism: Voices from Florida Newspapers (2003), Gator Tales: An Oral History of the University of Florida (2006), and Seminole Voices: Reflections on Their Changing Society, 1970–2000 (2010) (with Harry A. Kersey). In 2010, the Florida Humanities Council awarded him the silver medal for nonfiction for the book on the Seminoles.
