About Broward County, about Fort Lauderdale...

Twenty-three miles of wide sandy beaches stretch enticingly along calm, azure Atlantic waters--from Palm Beach in the north to Miami in the south. More than 300 miles of navigable inland waterways, part of the Intracoastal system, wind through palatial estates, citrus groves and exotic Everglades-beckoning boats of all sizes and shapes. And there are plenty of attractions to tempt landlubbers as well.

This is Greater Fort Lauderdale. For an area covering 1,196 square miles--two thirds of which lie in the Everglades--and a population of 1.2 million, the diversity of attractions and activities on and off the beach in Broward County is surprising. It's no wonder that sun seekers from all over the world come here to play, relax, shop, dine, sportfish, dive, boat and sightsee. It's also no wonder that Broward County is one of the fastest growing residential areas in the country-visitors tend to like it so much, they move in.

Broward's climate is tropical with an average year-round temperature of 77 degrees and 3,000 hours of sunshine. Winter temperatures average a mean of 66 degrees; summer, a mean of 84 degrees. January is the coolest month of the year and August is the warmest. The heaviest rainfalls occur during August and September.

As for sports, South Florida has it all. Besides the natural abundance of water sports, boating and fishing, there are numerous inland activities, including: golf, with more than 50 courses in Broward ranging from a par 3 to the most challenging courses; tennis, with more than 550 public and private tennis courts throughout Broward County; and parimutuels, which includes greyhound racing at Hollywood Greyhound Track, harness racing at Pompano Park Harness Track, jai-alai at Dania Jai-Alia, and thoroughbred racing at Gulfstream Park.

Fort Lauderdale is also just minutes from some of the nation's top professional sports attractions. Immediately south of Broward County lies Pro Player Stadium, home of the Miami Dolphins and Florida Marlins. The Miami Heat and Florida Panthers also play just 20 minutes south of Fort Lauderdale in the Miami Arena. The Panthers, however, will be leaving Miami for a new Broward County arena in time for their 1998-99 season. South Florida is also home to the Orange Bowl and CARQUEST Bowl, the Lipton Tennis Tournament, and The Honda Classic and Doral-Ryder Open golf tournaments.

Numerous attractions also abound, such as Butterfly World, Everglades Holiday Park, Flamingo Gardens, the Goodyear Blimp base, Grand Prix Race-O-Rama, and Sawgrass Recreation Park. These, along with the area's performing arts and shopping facilities, make Fort Lauderdale the perfect place to reside and study.

Meet the Director of Athletics, Corey Johnson...

Two years, two Florida Sun Conference All-Sports Trophies. That is the impact that Corey Johnson has had on the Nova Southeastern University department of athletics since his arrival in July of 1995. From that moment, Johnson has stressed not only the excellence in education that NSU athletes are known for, but also excellence on the field. Nova Southeastern University teams have continually responded to his challenges, as the Knights have nine first place finishes and three team national tournament appearances in various sports in just two seasons under Johnson.

A resident of Plantation, Johnson has worked in all facets of the athletics world, from being a teacher and intramural director in South Dakota, to being a head football coach in Wisconsin, to being an NCAA Division I assistant football coach at the University of Iowa and University of California at Berkeley. Johnson has seen it all in the days which led up to him accepting his first full-time collegiate administrative position as Associate Athletics Director at the University of Miami in 1983, and every day after as Director of Athletics with two other NCAA Division I programs.

It was at the University of Miami where Johnson first began making a name for himself as one of the top athletic administrators in the country. There, he was responsible for NCAA compliance and eligibility, was special projects and tournament coordinator, and was responsible for coordinating the return of Division I basketball. His supervision included 12 non-revenue sports, student-athlete housing, scholarships and financial aid. He was also there to see the university capture national championships in football, baseball and women's golf.

In 1987 he accepted a position with California State University Long Beach as Director of Athletics, Sports and Intramurals. And it was there that he proved his worth, handling a department comprised of 21 varsity and 16 club sports with more than 9,000 intramural participants (the campus had an enrollment of 34,000 students). That position led to his hiring as Director of Athletics at Colorado State University in 1991, where he was responsible for the overall operation of CSU's 16 varsity sports at a campus of 22,000 students.

Johnson departed the collegiate scene in 1994 to be Vice President of Administration and Corporate Advancement for Contemporary Services Corporation, where he worked on such special projects as the Super Bowl and World Cup Soccer. His love for collegiate athletics, however, proved to be too strong, leading to his arrival at Nova Southeastern University.

ABOUT THE KNIGHTS' NICKNAME

In 1982, the first year of athletics at Nova Southeastern University, a contest open to the general public came up with the "Knights" nickname. Eight people in the area came up with it, yet only one was chosen the winner by pulling their name out of a hat.

This 1997-98 Nova Southeastern University Team Program was compiled, designed and edited by Mike Laderman, Sports Information Director.

Meet the Head Coach, Charles "Sonny" Hansley...

The driving force behind the Knights is back yet again for another crack at an NAIA Southeast Region championship.

Charles "Sonny" Hansley heads into his 11th season at the helm of the Nova Southeastern University baseball program, looking to improve on the team's No. 12 NAIA final national ranking, looking to best the Knights' No. 16 pre-season rating, and looking to capture that elusive berth to the NAIA National Championship tournament. He and the Knights came as close as they ever had before, advancing to the Southeast's championship round last season before falling to Brewton-Parker College, 7-2, in Homestead, FL. During that run, Hansley's squad finished 43-18 en route to capturing the University's second Florida Sun Conference regular season championship (and third FSC title overall).

The Knights' baseball program has been all Hansley since Day One. And it has been virtually nothing but success since that same day. Only once has the program had a losing season, that being the first in 1987-88 when they went ?????. Since then, Hansley's squads have built a reputation as some of the better ones in the NAIA--particularly in the 1990's, what with the Knights winning 40-plus games five of the last six seasons.

Born August 1, 1947 in Chicopee, MA, Hansley remained a hometown fixture and graduated from Chicopee High in 1965. He then received his bachelor's degree in 1969 from American International College and his master's from Springfield College in 1976. He arrived at Nova Southeastern University in 1982, accepting the position as the University's first Director of Athletics with the responsibility of building an entire intercollegiate program from scratch. He did, turning it into a 10-team, $1 million department before resigning from the post in the summer of 1995 to concentrate solely on baseball and camps. Hansley was also the school's first-ever men's basketball coach, holding those reigns before departing to build up the baseball team. He has been named the Florida Sun Conference's Coach of the Year in 1994 and 97. District 7 Coach of the Year in 1994, and District 7 Administrator of the Year for 1992-93.

Meet Assistant Coach Tom Hysell...

Former Coconut Creek High School head coach Tom Hysell was named a Nova Southeastern University assistant coach in mid-June 1997.

Hysell is a familiar name to South Florida prep baseball aficionados, coaching the Cougars from 1980-96. There, he captured district titles in 1983, 87, 91, 94 and 95; sub-regional titles in 1994 and 95; regional championships in 1987, 91 and 94; and was a state semifinalist in 1994. His teams also were ranked in the state's top-10 in 1983, 1986-96.

Under his direction, Coconut Creek also earned national rankings in 1989, 92 and 93. Hysell was also named Broward County's Coach of the Year three times by Ft. Lauderdale's Sun-Sentinel (1983, 84 and 94) and The Herald twice (1983, 84). He was inducted into the Broward County Coaches Hall of Fame in 1994, and was the initial inductee to the City of Coconut Creek's Sports Wall of Fame in 1995.

Meet Assistant Coach Robert Perez...

Robert Perez enters his first season as assistant coach with the Nova Southeastern University Knights.

Perez's background in athletics--particularly baseball--is quite extensive. In fact, it includes a minor league stint in the Kansas City Royals' organization, that being when he played Single A ball for the Independent League's Salt Lake City Trappers in Salt Lake City, UT, from June 1990 to July 1991. He then was a three-sport coach at American Heritage School in Plantation, FL, helping coach the varsity baseball and soccer teams, and the junior varsity football squad, from August 1995 to June 1997. Beginning in June '97, he began working as assistant coach with the Pokers Baseball Club, a club team based out of Coral Springs, FL.

Perez was also an infantryman for the United States Marine Corps from August 1987 to November 1989, being an instructor at the School of Infantry in Parris Island, South Carolina.

Meet Assistant Coach Kevin Peyton...

A former pitcher for Nova Southeastern University, Kevin Peyton returns for his second season as assistant baseball coach--yet his first as the squad's pitching coach.

Peyton, who graduated from Nova

Southeastern University in 1996 with a bachelor's of science in pre-law, pitched for two seasons under head coach Sonny Hansley (1994-95, 1995-96) before joining the staff in 1996-97. As a junior, he appeared in 10 games (14.0 innings) and was 1-0 with six strikeouts. His senior year, Peyton made 12 appearances and again went 1-0, recording a solid 2.45 earned run average in 11.0 innings pitched.

A member of the American Baseball Coaches Association, Peyton--who also pitched collegiately at Camden County Community College (Blackwood, NJ) his freshman and sophomore seasons--also coached the Connie Mack Traveling Team (Coral Springs, FL). There, he was head pitching coach, helped with fund raising, and scouted and recruited potential players. Last year, in his first season as coach with the Knights, he was assistant pitching coach under Bob Deutschman, and was first base coach.

Q&A: Sonny Hansley eyes the 1997-98 season...

Q Let's talk about the expectations that you have heading into this new baseball season, especially after coming so close last year. The object is, of course, to get back to where you were last year, which was the NAIA Southeast Region championship game, and to go past that. Are the expectations there because of what happened last year? Or do you not even feel the pressure to get back to that spot?

A "I think there's always pressure to do better the following year. I think one of the things that happens in our conference is that historically the team that goes the furthest the year before hasn't done as well the following season. We've obviously lost the middle of our order from last year. We've lost [third baseman] Brian Norris, [center fielder] Claude Love and [catcher] Brian Gerity to graduation, mainstays for us for the last two and three years. Have we replaced them? I'm not sure if we've replaced them yet. I don't think our fall was anywhere we thought it would be, probably because we've got so many young kids and there's so much teaching still going on. We're still not set now as to who's going to play where yet, which is why the first week of the season is going to be so important to us."

Q I've mentioned that, of course, Brewton-Parker was the team to beat last year. They got by us in two games, and then went on to win the national championship, so again they're the team to beat in the Southeast Region. Have you brought in people that you feel can knock them out, or will this be more of a rebuilding-type year with hopes of getting them in another year or two?

A "I don't ever think about rebuilding. I don't think I've ever used that word since I've been here. We use the word 'reloading.' We need big years from a couple of people. We need a big year from Raul DeCastro, we need a big year from Charlie Vaughn and Mark Groeneveld and Jerry Simmons. Those are the guys that are returning players that are extremely important. We need to be strong in the catching area. We've got Ben Prill and Norberto Lopez, both of whom are very capable catchers, yet only one of those guys is going to win that position."

Q You mentioned the four guys that can do good things for Nova Southeastern this season. Those are four guys that certainly are capable of doing the job.

A "They can and they must. They have to carry the ball early in the season until the young guys like Chris Villano, who will probably start in center field, and Tommy Ayala--who will get a chance to play--get their feet wet."

Q So there's really not much lee-way heading into the season, is there?

A "No. Well, I mean, we have some good guys coming in, like Tommy Molina, he's somebody that can certainly hit. Matt Cleveland, who's a transfer coming in, he can hit. Plus we still have guys for us like Jimmy Birch, who played great for us last year, and Charles Cerrato, are still battling for positions. They have to step up and do what they did last year in order to justify being in the lineup. So we've got some question marks. We're not where we thought we would be after the fall, which is kind of disappointing in that regard heading into January."

Q I remember heading into the regular season last year that you guys were saying that you weren't as strong as the year before, and then last year look at what happens--you get to the region finals. This year, it seems like you're saying the same thing, that you may not be as good as last year's team. Can this team go where last year's team went, like last year's team bested the season before?

A "If our pitching staff is healthy that we'll be in every game that we play. If we put what we consider to be our best defensive team out on the field, then, yeah, we're capable of being a very good team. But right now there's so many questions in my mind. Is John Hassel going to be healthy? Is Matt Bennett going to come back and pitch the way we think he can pitch? Are the freshmen pitchers going to be able to step up and pitch against tough competition that we're playing against? Obviously our goal is to win the conference. We have a very, very rugged independent schedule, but we set it up for that reason, so that when we get to conference play we're not going to be surprised by anybody. Now as far as a lineup goes, if you were to ask me for a lineup, I can show you a piece of paper--a napkin, really--that I wrote on at the airport that says if one thing happens, and another thing happens, and another, what are we going to do, and I don't know right now. So if I were going to project what we were going to do, if we're strong on the mound--which I think we can be--and we're strong up the middle--then we can be good."

Q Talk about the middle of the defense.

A "To start, catching-wise, it'll be a dogfight between Ben and Norberto, which is great. They both want to play, and they're both going to get the chance to be the starting catcher. Jerry Simmons at shortstop, we're happy to have him there. Then we have to decide which guy we want at second base. Center field probably will be Chris Villano, a freshman, who will most likely be surrounded by Mark Groeneveld in right and Charlie Vaughn in left. Third base is still open. Tommy Molina's a third baseman who will battle Jim Birch and Glenn Mackie for the spot. Whatever guy hits is who will most likely play there."

Q You've sounded very excited about the pitching staff. Why?

A "I think the strength of our team this year, I think, is going to be our pitching staff. We have Felipe coming back for his senior season and John Hassel, who we're hoping will be fine after his injury. Plus we have some good freshmen guys, like Todd Gittleman from Hollywood Hills and Brian Frink from Piper. A surprise for us right now, really, has been Joe Giummule. Last year we brought him in as a pitcher and he didn't do well in the fall, so we made him an infielder yet he got hurt, so now we're putting him back on the mound and he pitched very well for us in the fall, so we expect him to be a fourth or fifth starter and give us some innings. But, overall, we have some really good pitchers. Todd Gittleman, he can pitch, he's going to be good. Now I'm not sure if he's going to be there right away this year, but he's got a chance to be a really, really good player. And so does Bryan Frink. Bryan throws hard, he's just learning. He's coming off an arm injury where he's never been hurt before, and now he's getting a feel for it. Then we've got Shannon Scalzi back, he did a good job for us at the end of last year. Bryan Needle is going to pitch some middle relief. Blake Paynter is a 6-foot-3 transfer from Barry University who throws real hard. So there's some optimism on that side that we've got nine or 10 guys that can pitch. That's our strong suit."

Q And, of course, there's Felipe Suarez and John Hassel.

A "What can you say about Felipe other than the fact that he's the hardest worker on our ballclub. He's an excellent pitcher. If we can put Felipe Suarez and John Hassel and Todd Gittleman at one, two and three out there every day, and then come in with Bryan Frink or Joe Giummule in the four or five spot, I like our chances with those guys pitching."

Q With moving John Hassel into the starting rotation, who is going to be this year's John Hassel? Who will be the main closer?

A "Matt Bennett, right now, is ticketed to be the closer. We've talked to him and he's ready to go. He was a closer before he came over here from Broward Community College, before he had arm problems, but he's healthy now. As for John, John wants to start and he deserves an opportunity to do that. We just need to see how he recovers from his surgery. We'd like to have him going in time for conference play beginning in February. So as you can see, there's a lot of question marks...but nobody wants to talk about those things, so we don't talk about them. It just goes with the territory. That's why you have so many players, so if somebody gets hurt, then somebody else steps up. If somebody doesn't make it grade-wise, somebody else steps up. And that's what we've always done, so regarding that part we're in pretty good shape. The key is whether or not they'll keep doing that."

Q The conference is tough, too, this year, isn't it?

A "St. Thomas picked up a lot of guys, a lot of good players, and have a lot of good players coming back, including possibly the best catcher in the conference. I don't know if their pitching is as good as our pitching, but they're good. And Embry-Riddle has picked up some guys that I thought we had a shot at. But we have Felipe...and the rest will follow."

Q But can just one guy lead the way for this team, be the catalyst, so to speak, and have the rest of an entire staff--especially a young staff--follow him?

A "I think he can. If you think back to a pitcher like Mike Chismar...when he was a senior (1994-95), he led. He led because he always pitched that first game, and that first game of a conference series is always the most important because that's the lead-off game. Get that game, and the other guys get confident. There's not as much pressure. And the pressure's on Felipe, and he knows that. But that's why we put him at No. 1, because he handles that pressure. He's won a lot of big games for us. He deserves to be there."

Q I hate to dwell on the past now, but I think you have to in this situation...you lost a lot of good players to graduation last year, such as Claude Love. How do you replace guys like that?

A "I don't know if you ever replace a Claude Love. I think you put somebody out there and, down the road, they hopefully end up playing at that level, because we expect everybody to play exceptional baseball. Chris Villano and Tommy Ayala are two people I've mentioned before, but they're freshmen. Yet they both have the kind of work ethic that Claude had when he was here. They arrive early, they stay late, they've worked hard in practice to go the extra yards. That's why they both have a chance to play as a freshman."

Q Those are all things that Claude Love did.

Q&A...

A "Claude Love did all those things for five years, so that's his legacy that he's left us, so you kind of compare everybody else to his work ethic."

Q What about finding an emotional leader for this year's team? You had it with Brian Norris, but he's gone, too.

A "Nobody's stepped up and done that yet. You look at last year's team, you had two fifthyear guys--Claude and Brian--and then Brian Gerity leaving, who was with the program for four years. Claude was a quiet leader, where Brian was more outspoken who took charge of things."

Q Yet they complimented each other quite well.

A "They did. So we're still searching for that part, as far as our identity is concerned. I don't know yet who will be the one to step up and take control of that responsibility. Something needs to be done, but we won't know by who until the spring. But maybe it's because there's so many questions at this point as to who is going to be in the starting lineup."

Q Are you...I don't want to say worried more than you've been in the past, but because there's so many spots open right now, and because of the amount of solid players that have graduated from the program, are you concerned? Or are you eagerly anticipating the season? How would you put it?

Sonny Hansley (L) with last year's team most valuable player Claude Love.

A "Anxious to get started, anxious to get back on the field and put the pieces together. I think the pieces are

A "Anxious to get started, anxious to get back on the field and put the pieces together. I think the pieces are there. Now it's our job as coaches--and my job as the head coach--to put the right guys out there and make sure they mesh."

Q Have you done more coaching this year than you have in a while?

A "I have in the fall, just trying to get all our young kids ready to play. Our staff, though, has worked real hard with them. Coach Peyton has done a really good job with the pitchers, I think they're ready to go opening day. Coach Hysell has worked well with the catchers, and they've responded to him. And Coach Perez has got the outfielders, so it's not for lack of work. Now, we just need Groeneveld, Vaughn, DeCastro and Simmons to step up. Then it's just a matter of building the team's confidence up. Not the older guys, because they know they can play. It's just the younger guys that are going to get a chance to show their stuff."

A look back: The 1996-97 baseball season...

FEBRUARY 1: Felips Suarez gave up just 1 run on 2 hits, while Raul DeCastro drove home the winning run in the top of the eighth, to give the visiting Knights a 2-1 win past Florida Tech in NSU's season opener... FEBRUARY 3: After being held scoreless for eight innings, NSU's bats came to life in the 9th, but it wasn't enough as they lost 5-3 to the University of Tampa... FEBRUARY 4: NSU scored 12 runs in the bottom of the sixth to break open a close game to defeat visiting Lynn University 20-9. Jose "Mickey" Cuadro went 4-for-4 with a double, 4 runs scored and 2 runs batted in for the Knights... FEBRUARY 5: The Knights, at one point up 6-1 early in the game, yielded 7 unanswered runs to host Barry University to fall 8-6. NSU pitchers John Hassel, Matt Bennett and Ricky Wolfer gave up just 6 hits to Barry in the loss... FEBRUARY 8: Only Claude Love, Brian Gerity, Cuadro, Mark Groeneveld and Joe Giummule could get hits as the Knights fell to Rollins College 4-0... FEBRUARY 9: After being shut out the previous day, NSU was held in check again, this time 2-1... FEBRUARY 12: The Knights used a 5-run third inning to defeat visiting Barry University 9-8. Eight different batters got hits for NSU, which snapped its 3-game losing streak... FEBRUARY 14: Appropriately for Valentines Day, Love led the Knights to a 13-2 win past Palm Beach Atlantic College with 3 hits (including a home run), 3 RBI and 3 runs scored... FEBRUARY 15: Matt Veronesi hit a 2-run homer over the 365-foot mark in left-center field to give the Knights a dramatic 8-6 win over Palm Beach Atlantic College... FEBRUARY 18: Brian Norris continued his personal hot streak from the plate with a 3-for-4 performance that included a home run, 3 RBI and 2 RS, but the Knights still fell to Florida Tech, 8-7... FEBRUARY 23: Charlie Vaughn went a combined 5for-6 with I RBI and 2 stolen bases to lead NSU to a double-header split with conference rival Embry-Riddle University, 3-1 and 2-3... FEBRUARY 24: Gerity's double brought home Jerry Simmons with the winning run in the top of the 11th to give NSU a 2-1 win past Embry-Riddle... FEBRUARY 25: Love, Norris, Groeneveld, Ben Prill and Vaughn each had 2 hits to lead NSU past visiting Trinity International University, 8-1... FEBRUARY 28: Groeneveld's bloop single into left field scored Norris from second base with the winning run in the bottom of the 10th inning, giving the Knights a dramatic come-from-behind 6-5 win past FSC rival Flagler College.

MARCH 1: Gerity had a field day, going a combined 3-for-5 with 2 home runs, 1 double and 7 RBI to lead NSU to a double header sweep (10-1, 11-1) past visiting Flagler College. Both games took just five innings due to the 10-run mercy rule ... MARCH 3: Love delivered a 2-out game-winning single to center field to score Shaughn Nichols from second base as the Knights defeated NCAA Division I Monmouth University, 6-5, in 11 innings... MAY 15: Hassel tied the NAIA record by earning his 16th save of the season as the Knights held off St. Thomas, I-0, to advance in the region's winner's bracket... MAY I6: The Knights got pounded by the nation's top-ranked squad--Brewton Parker--17-2, sending the Knights to the loser's bracket... About the Florida Sun Conference...

The Florida Sun Conference (FSC) is one of the newest intercollegiate athletic conferences in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). The conference consists of nine colleges and universities and spans across the entire state of Florida.

The Florida Sun Conference is comprised of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Flagler College, Florida Memorial College, Northwood University, Nova Southeastern University, Palm Beach Atlantic College, St. Thomas University, Warner Southern College and Webber College.

The institutions in the conference believe in strong educational commitment combined with balanced athletic competition. In just seven years of existence, four different FSC institutions have received the Conference All Sports trophy signifying achievement in their overall athletic program--with Nova Southeastern University leading the way with three in a row, and four in the last five years.

Originally formed in March of 1990 as the Florida Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, the FSC was established as a conference for small independent colleges and universities within the NAIA. The conference name was changed in 1992 to its current name.

The league sponsors championships in the following men's sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer and tennis. The FSC also sponsors championships in the following women's sports: basketball, cross country, soccer, softball, tennis and volleyball.

In its six short years of existence, the FSC has quickly established post-season tradition with automatic NAIA Tournament bids to the conference champion in baseball, men's basketball, volleyball and soccer. Also, Florida Sun Conference teams are frequently found in the NAIA Top 25 National Polls in all sports. Individually speaking, athletes from the FSC have proven themselves worthy of national recognition year after year.

In addition to recognizing outstanding achievements on the playing fields in all 12 sports, the conference also recognizes achievement in the classroom. Each year an Academic All-Florida Sun Conference Team is selected. Last year, 102 athletes throughout the nine conference institutions received the award. The Athletic Directors of the nine member institutions serve as the Florida Sun Conference Board of Directors.

About the NAIA...

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) is a completely autonomous association currently administering intercollegiate athletic programs to approximately 400 fully-accredited colleges and universities, more than 30 percent of all four-year collegiate athletic programs in the United States. The Association has member colleges in 47 of the 50 states and in British Columbia. The organization is responsibly governed by a 32-member Council of Presidents.

The Association administers 24 separate championships in 13 sports. Approximately 66,000 student-athletes participate annually in NAIA-sanctioned varsity athletic programs.

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics stands prepared to administer programs and championships which provide "education through athletics" for each and every NAIA student-athlete. The future of 66,000 young people is too important to handle any other way.
