

Campus Diversity Dialogues

Understanding Microaggressions

You may have heard the term “microaggressions” but have some questions about what it means, or what it looks like in practice. You may experience microaggressions in your daily life, and perhaps you’d value an opportunity to share what those experiences are like for you. Your voice is important. Please join us for a dialogue to foster understanding and build our inclusive community here at NSU.

DATE: Tuesday, October 2, 2018

TIME: 12-1 PM

FACILITATORS: Dr. Sabrina Robinson & Kristina Tatum, MS

LOCATION: DeSantis 3030

WHO: Students, faculty, staff, alumni

ONLINE: Feel free to participate via link below:

<https://attendee.gototraining.com/r/404747115783206146>

Lunch provided by the CAHSS
Graduate SGA!

Diversity Dialogues is held on the first Tuesday of each month at noon. Topics and presenters change monthly, but what is constant is the freedom to exchange ideas in a respectful environment. Questions or suggestions? Reach out to Dr. Robin Cooper, Special Assistant to the Dean and Facilitator, College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, at robicoop@nova.edu.

Save the Dates for the other Fall 2018 Meetings: Nov. 6 and Dec. 4

Brought to you by the NSU Inclusion and Diversity Council

<http://www.nova.edu/inclusion/>

Who are we? We are a coalition of NSU students, faculty, staff, administrators, alumni, and community members who work together to make a positive impact on student success and inclusive excellence at NSU.

Do you want to be a member of the Inclusion and Diversity Council?

Email Jonathan May at jm2501@nova.edu. We would love to hear from you.