CHRISTMAS IN SOUTH FLORIDA

"Twas the night before Christmas, and all through our town,
No noses were frozen, no snow fluttered down.
No children in flannels were tucked into bed.
There all wore there shorty pajamas instead.
To find wreathes of holly was not very hard,
For holly trees sprouted right in the back yard.
In front of the houses were daddys and moms,
Admiring the bushes and coconut palms.
The slumberring kiddies were dreaming in glee,
And hoped they'd water skis under the tree.
They all knew that Santa was well on his way,
In a Mercedes Benz instead of a sleigh.
And soon he arrived and started to work,
He hadn't a second to linger or shirk.
He whizzed over highways and zoomed up the road,
In a shiny new sports delivering his load.
The tropical moon gave the city a glow,
And lighted the way for Santa below.
As he jumped from the auto, he gave a wee chuckle,
He was dressed in Bermudas with an Ivy League buckle.
There wern't any chimneys, but that caused no gloom,
For Santa came through the Florida room.
He stopped at each house and stayed only a minute,
And emptied his sack of the stuff that was in it.
Before he departed he treated himself,
To a glass of papaya juice left on the shelf.
Then he turned with a jerk and bounced and bounced back to the car,
Remembering he still had to go very far.
He stepped on the gas and put it in gear,
And drove through the land singing with cheer.
And I heard him exclaim as he went on his way,
"Merry Christmas, South Florida, I wish I could stay."
