Archives and Scholarship in NSUWorks

NSUWorks and the NSU Archives

NSUWorks is the online institutional repository for Nova Southeastern University. It is meant to collect, preserve and disseminate the scholarship produced by faculty, students, staff and alumni. The repository aims to represent all of the colleges, institutes, centers, and schools that make up Nova Southeastern University. It also strives to present historical documentation of the school's history from items held in the NSU Archives.

Items included in the repository from the Archives thus far include:

- Photograph collections
- Student newspaper
- Departmental newsletters/magazines
- Course catalogs

These and more can be viewed at:

NSUWorks and Student Scholarship

Currently, NSUWorks is adding theses and dissertations by graduate students, a photo competition by students at the Oceanographic Center, and the two law reviews from the Shepard Broad Law Center.

Are you interested in showcasing your own scholarship online?

Do you want to make Googling yourself more impressive?

Would you like a permanent URL to show to potential employers or graduate schools?

NSUWorks may be the answer to these questions! Beyond the current student collections being added to the repository, we would like to add:

- Senior Honors Projects
- Research projects
- Conferences
- Additional student journals
- Creative writing portfolios
- Music recitals
- Fine arts
- And Much More!

If you are interested in any of the above or have questions, contact NSUWorks at nsuworks@nova.edu or speak with your professors.
