5. Pedagogical Innovations

Faculty	Description of Pedagogical Innovation
Bertha Amisi	Created a new special topics course for Winter titled “Arts-Based Approaches to Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding”

Bertha Amisi	Invited Suddha Ragunathan, Renowned Carnatic Vocalist from India, to guest lecture in the class on music, movement and peacebuilding (See DCRS Winter 2018 newsletter for detailed information).
Elena Bastidas	Developed and designed the 2018 Global Practicum. Coast, Andes and Ecuadorian Jungle are part of the geographic areas explored.
Elena Bastidas	Development and design of the module Water Conflicts for the Honors Water and Sustainability Seminar , a collaborate effort with 5 different university units.
Mark Cavanaugh	Developed in both online and traditional format courses, video and audio lectures, as well as ppt presentations, to enhance the learning experience.
Cheryl Duckworth	Proposal to “collapse” two extant schools and conflict courses into one new course, as the present courses are a bit redundant and outdated (status: before CAHSS Curric. Cmte)
Alexia Georgakopoulos	Facilitation Course: Theory, Research and Practice Integrated a topic of workplace safety and wellbeing into the class workshop, so students were able to integrate these aspects into their own work contexts and selected an outside community partner to join the workshop in order to address the problem/issue they are facing currently to create a viable action plan for addressing the issue/problem.
Urszula Strawinska-Zanko	Comprehensive guide for PhD students at the Department of Conflict Resolution Studies, Dissertation Library Guide at http://nova.campusguides.com/dcrsPhD
Urszula Strawinska-Zanko	Developed sustainable on-line resources integrated with instructional materials: guides hosted on the NSU Alvin Sherman Library web page and methods-lists hosted within SAGE Research Methods Online for Methods courses, e.g. Quantitative I, Research Methods and Program Evaluation, Human Factors.

	Example: Human Factors Course Guide at http://nova.campusguides.com/humanfactors
