Charles A. Morehead, III was born in Miami, Florida, and has been a lawyer for 30 years. He holds the highest “AV” rating from the oldest lawyer rating group in the world, Martindale-Hubbell. A Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyer, his practice includes serious personal injury, wrongful death, aviation accidents, legal malpractice, defective products of all kinds, medical malpractice, automobile negligence and premises liability claims. He also represents individuals and corporations in commercial disputes of all kinds. His practice includes State and Federal court work.

A Member of the American Board of Trial Advocates, he also serves on their executive board as President-Elect in 2015.

A member of the Broward County Bar Association since 1985, Charles serves as President-Elect currently and has served on the Board of Directors since 2006.

Educated at the University of Florida for his undergraduate degree, and an Honors graduate of the University of Miami School of Law, he prides himself on taking on unusual cases that other attorneys will not, where the rewards and facts warrant. A past president of the Broward County Bar Association’s Trial Lawyer Section, he is also a long time member of the Broward County Justice Association, the county’s premier consumer advocacy organization.

Charles is an active father of three, and an avid hunter, boater, and outdoorsman. He also won the World Skeet Shooting Championship in his class in consecutive years.
