Courseware Resonates

“Students are reading differently than we did... they are reading in chunks... we've come around to ‘this is just the way they read.’ I think working through chunks is effective. That’s why I like the self-checks because they apply to the “chunks.” You’ve catered to millennials. It’s active reading and it’s chunky reading.”

Kellie Emrich, Macroeconomics

Cuyahoga Community College

“I keep laughing because your course has many of the exact same videos I’ve been using for years. But I’m angry because I’ve spent hours searching for them and I’m thinking, ‘Oh my gosh, here they are!’”
