Dear Student:

I am writing to inform you that although revisions are currently being made on this issue by the Registrar's Office, Nova University has been found not in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Nova has failed to fully adhere to 34 Code of Federal Regulation, Part 99, which states that institutions must have written policies and procedures which allow students to access and amend their educational records. Therefore, if you find that you have difficulty obtaining your educational records or if you obtain them and find any information within that you believe to be inaccurate, misleading, or derogatory, and are not provided with the proper procedures necessary to try to amend your records, please see me or one of the S.G.A. officers in Room 211 (475-7661) as soon as possible.

--Respectfully yours,
Edward L. Artau -
S.G.A. President

The Retired Officer's Association will be awarding scholarships to deserving students from the Brevard County area. Requirements for these scholarships include the following: Sons/daughters of officers or enlisted members in one of the armed forces. Graduate or public or private secondary schools in Brevard County. Students must have completed sufficient college level credit hours, acceptable for entry into the junior year of a four year program leading to a Bachelor's degree in science, engineering or mathematics. For more information, contact the Financial Aid Office, Parker Bldg. Room 225.
