The Little Lemon
by: Chelsea Charles

Hanging on a lemon tree, There's a lemon no one sees.

Denied of right
To water and light,
This little lemon will never be ripe.

Four-thirty
by: Jamie Cohen

sun cast a light on me
a subtle earthly glow
a gleaming from the western sky fill me with peace as you go sun set my mind at rest lull me with gentle heat warm me from my fingertips my head, to heart, to feet.

sun clarify the world and reveal all its flaws but brighten all the beauty that overrides it all
