EIGHTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Welcome

A cordial welcome is extended to each person attending the Eighth Annual Commencement Exercises, including friends and relatives of each degree candidate, University students, faculty and staff, and friends and supporters of the University.

Song of the Open Road

Norman Dello Joio
(1913-)

Hello! Hello! Whoever you are, Come travel with me.
We will sail pathless and wild seas.
We will go where waves dash and winds blow.
Look around! You will find what never tires.
Come on! Come on and join hands,
Know what it is as you pass to be loved by strangers
I give you my hand. I give you my love.
I give you myself. Will you give me yourself?
Will you travel with me? The road is before us.
Shall we stick by each other as long as we live?
Hello! Hello! Come on and travel with me. Hello!

Academic Notes

The caps, gowns and hoods of the academic procession date back to the Middle Ages, when they were common dress for scholars. Monks and students wore them to keep warm in the damp drafty twelfth-century castles and halls of learning.

The Bachelor's gown is relatively simple and unadorned, falling in straight lines from a fairly elaborate yoke. A few institutions pipe the yoke with a school color. The master's gown is distinguished by its long square sleeves. In 1960 the committee of the American Council on Education modified the length of the sleeves and in place of the elbow slit, an opening was made at the wrist and the gown was made to be worn open or closed. The Doctor's gown is an elaborate costume marked by velvet panels down the front and around the neck as well as three bars of the same material on the bell shaped sleeves.

The hood is the key to the costume and identifies the level of the degree, the field of learning in which it was given and the institution which awarded it. The level of the degree is shown by the size of the hood, the width of the velvet trimming, and in the case of the doctors, by the shape. The Master's and Doctor's hoods are three and one half feet, and four feet long, respectively. The velvet trimming which extends all around the hood on the exposed edge is three inches wide for the Master's hood five inches wide for the Doctor's hood. The institution is identified by the silk lining of the hood. (Nova University colors are blue and silver).

During the processional, candidates for the Bachelor's degree wear the tassels on their mortar-board hats on their right. Upon conferral of the degree the tassels are moved to the left.
