International Law Concentration

The NSU Shepard Broad College of Law offers a concentration in International Law, permitting students to obtain recognition for their course work in our vast selection of classes offered in international and/or comparative legal studies. Completion of the requirements for this course of study will lead to a notation on the qualified student's transcript and a concentration indicating the student's focus, interest and specialized training in this area.

To earn an International Legal Practice Concentration each student must complete the course, credit, writing and service requirements in the PDF link below. These requirements may not be waived.
