Master's Programs

The Huizenga College of Business offers a variety of master's degree programs, all designed to meet the demands of corporate America and prepare you to add immediate value in the workplace. While our specialized business programs support a variety of professional needs, the spirit of entrepreneurship unite them to form an educational experience that is unique only to the Huizenga College of Business.

You may choose to study full-time or part-time; at our main campus in a traditional classroom setting in Fort Lauderdale, or at any of NSU's locations across Florida. You can even choose to earn your degree online. Depending on the program format you select, you can complete your degree in as little as 12 months. If you're interested in earning advanced degrees in two different professional programs, you may want to consider our joint-degree programs.

We understand the need to balance the demands of your academic and professional life. That's why our Master's Degree Programs offer flexible schedules, along with robust curricula that will increase your employability in today's competitive job market.
