Faith's Flaw

Alaina Siminovsky

Pain paints portraits of truth.
Truth may deal in lies.

Distance creates pain that perverts truth.
Perception is seduced by faith's flaw.

I am starving without you,
Reduced by emotional malnourishment.

To my eyes, your figure has blurred.
To my mind you are as crisp as you were upon first sight.

Behind me I feel your presence.
Turning I find you not there; the presence but a lie.

Night bears the cries of my heart, screaming out your name.
In every breath: Exhale, only solitude- Inhale, take it in.
