About the Clinic

The NSU School Psychology Assessment and Consultation Center (SPACC) offers comprehensive psychoeducational evaluations for school-related academic, behavioral, developmental, and learning problems. These evaluations are performed by advanced school psychology trainees who have completed their entire sequence of assessment and integrated report writing courses, doctoral clinical practicum students, and postdoctoral residents. The assessment process is closely supervised by the SPACC director, Ralph E. (Gene) Cash, Ph.D., who is a licensed psychologist and faculty member, and the assistant director, Kristen Cunningham, Psy.D., who is a clinical faculty member and licensed psychologist.

Evaluations

The NSU SPACC offers comprehensive psychoeducational evaluations for a variety of school-related issues including

- Asperger's Disorder
- attentional problems
- autism and autism spectrum disorders
- developmental delays
- dyslexia
- emotional/behavioral problems
- giftedness
- motivational difficulties
- retention decisions
- specific learning disabilities
- test accommodations
- test anxiety
