Take Me Anywhere

Bridget Haley

the four foggy walls (that were once white)
hold down the floor
speckled blue
with the dreams
of withering students

the fluorescent lights
hold down the rigid desks which in turn hold down
the students
gazing at the empty
whiteboard
stained from years
of professors
who forgot to erase

three windows
are stuck in the back wall covered by cobalt blinds crying over the glass distorting the leaves outside and i no longer believe life outside this room is real
