End of the Day

Preeya Jamnadas

The light fades out,
Streaks of cold glitter
Are slowly slipping away.

A new sensation arrives,
Its colors deeper,
The touch cooler,
The time is leaking,
Slowly slipping away.

Your eyes strain,
I know it's difficult,
Long for the moments,
When we were lit,
Slowly slipping away.

Every sun goes,
But rises again,
It's a pattern,
Followed by
Innocent souls,
Slowly slipping away.

Every sun sets,
A beauty at greatness,
A most powerful,
The brightness,
That you once hated,
The love,
That you once cared for,
Is slowly,
Slowly,
Slipping away.
