Night Song

Chelsea Charles

Sleep

Dances just outside my vision

And brushes upon my eyelids,

Never staying

Evanescence

In form of color and abstraction

Teases as it travels slowly,

So slowly along my black canvas

Into darkness,

I begin my descent,

But I never get all the way there

Before I'm once again among light

Among light.

No colors. No shadows. No silence.

Optimistically foreboding,

Awakened.
