SHEPARD BROAD LAW CENTER

National Jurist Reports

NSU #1
LAW

The most wired law school in the U.S.

Introduction

Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center cordially invites you to participate in our fall 1999 On-Campus Interview Program. NSU Law is a technologically advanced law center and, in a recent survey by The National Jurist magazine, was ranked #1 on the "Most Wired" list in terms of computer technology. NSU Law uses its commanding lead in technology to guarantee every student a full-time clinical semester with exciting externship placements throughout the country and around the world. Additionally, our comprehensive two-year lawyering skills and values program, coupled with our clinical program, ensures that our students and graduates have hands-on legal experience and will make excellent summer associates and first-year attorneys.

About Our Students

Our students are of outstanding caliber. NSU Law's commitment to rigorous legal education is evident by our refusal to follow the national trend of inflated grades. You can feel confident that our median GPA is a testament to the integrity, quality, and challenges of our legal curriculum. Our students are highly skilled and technically equipped to handle the reality of legal practice. The majority of our graduates choose to remain in Florida to practice law. Our alumni practice with private law firms, government agencies, public interest organizations, corporations, and in academia. We have several alumni who are members of the judiciary and prominent elected officials. All are practicing with distinction.

The Law Center admits students of any race, sex, sexual preference, a

Nova Southeastern University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of award bachelor's, master's, educational specialist, and doctoral degrees.

About the OCI Program

About the OCI Program

The 1999 On-Campus Interview Program affords you the opportunity to interview second- and third-year law students at the law center. Our OCI Program begins on Wednesday, September 8, 1999 and continues through Friday, November 12, 1999. To register, simply complete the attached form and return it to us no later than July 1. We will contact you to ensure that we understand your needs and qualifications. Our office will collect and submit resumes to you, and schedule interviews with the students you select. There is no cost to you. Our goal is to help you meet your hiring needs.

Something New

Something New

We are pleased to announce that you may now directly post clerking and attorney job opportunities on our Web site and also search through student resumes online. For information on this new advancement, please check where indicated on the attached form. We will introduce this exciting technology during the Florida Bar's Annual Meeting at the Nova Southeastern University Law Center Reception scheduled to take place on Thursday, June 24, 1999 from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the Boca Raton Resort and Club. Please join us as our guests.
