Ad Infinitum

Raquel Sanchez

the clock strikes one, acoustically announcing our encounter, and at our sight, distance submerges us into endless time. metaphors spill onto blank pages, as decorum fails to restrain flamed infatuation—so each spoken syllable makes its way into the unfathomable, and what remains is an eternal, solid kiss.

 a kiss ten times removed from existence, which has brought you to me—and each word avers this truth of us, infinitely.
