Celebration – “the action of marking one’s pleasure at an important event or occasion by engaging in enjoyable, typically social activity”.

Wow. What is typical “social activity” these pandemic days?...a toast to a computer screen? Simultaneous cocktails? Dancing together virtually?

Celebration is much more than our environment. It is joy in our hearts, thanksgiving, and happiness, no matter our circumstances

no matter our environment

no matter if we are social or not.

Let us celebrate our lives and our loves and the happiness of being human – pandemic or no pandemic.

Celebrate life.
