Uniqueness is Illusion

Loret Haas-Hanser

Individuality is a paradox that acts as a black hole of lackluster sovereignty

Carbon copies have become more common than respective nature Exclusiveness and rarities make you "weird" and "strange"

Ostracize and isolate you because you dared to be different Dared to take a stand Exerted passion without being crippled by fear

Questioned the things that do not have answers

Pure, unadulterated minds have become endangered due to the fact that society decided that "distinct" and "shame" are now synonyms

Synonyms that should be aborted and put in opposite ends of the dictionary

But instead are broadcast on rooftops, yelled from cliques and typed fallaciously on pink-studded keyboards

I challenge you to challenge yourself

Trust your introspection and do not redesign the blueprints you came with

For your DNA was chosen from billions of microscopic qualities Dissected and placed in patterns of G, T and A

Boycott normality and embrace eccentricity

Don't let the world bring you down.
