dodging the police

stefani rubino

“Come on Eileen” came on the radio today and it reminded me of that time in high school when we skipped school to speed up and down I-95 with the music blasting so loud we had to scream to hear each other.
it is disparaging to think that those times are lost amongst a sea of memories in the infinite canyon of time. but i want to feel that polluted breeze on my face again, i want to feel like i am doing something forbidden, i want to know why, time after time, we were never pulled over by the police even though it was clear we were speeding.

and we adored it.
