Simple and Sanguine by Jamie Cohen

sanguine it seems
just you and me
hand in hand
heart to heart

marveling in the beauty of the sheer simplicity exposed teeth and rosy cheeks open waters and clear skies there is tomorrow with you but today and yesterday flies secrets flow to and fro without the slightest hesitation fluidity, liquidity, calm waters the first sustaining nation fingers interlaced palms face to face whispers melt before us leaving the subtlest trace there is love and there is hope and you brought me both illuminated and promised forever and

never

sanguine it seems
hand in hand
heart to heart

of the sheer simplicity
