"ABC" by Isaac Zinguer

a numerous amount of people belong to different places, some come and go different races elongate across the country, many are ferocious, they hustle to get what is wanted humans are an interesting species ignoring all the mistakes made by themselves just my opinion killing is one problem, years before humans were longer, bigger, stronger, and we did not look like we do now, now we're much different numerous humans are born with deformities opportunities are given to humans people don't take advantage of them quitting is one of their problems by running away chances go some lucky ones
tend to be successful usually odds are not on their side virtually we see the cash that welcomes us to a better life, god marks the x of when our lives will end because yes
zero get out alive.
