Untitled by Sydney Shiekman

You love me,
You held me,
You laughed with me,
Not at me.
I chose you,
And you chose me.
You left,
We spoke,
You laughed
Not with me.
It wasn't the same.
I still chose you,
And you still chose me.
We fought,
We stopped.
It never was the same,
But we proceeded like it was.
You laughed it off,
And I cried it out,
But we both ached.
Nonetheless, I chose you,
And you chose me.
We spoke less,
We laughed less,
Until it finally ceased.
You loved me,
Maybe you still do.
But what a pleasure it was to have my heart broken
By you.
