Congratulations

Commencement is the recognition of your academic achievements and lasting contributions made to the university, which is celebrated with your fellow classmates as well as with the families who have supported you on your journey to one of life's most significant milestones.

You make us proud!

ATTENDANCE AND ELIGIBILITY

Candidates who were not invited to a past ceremony and had a degree conferred since the last commencement exercises are automatically invited to participate. Each college determines its participation requirements. When in doubt, check with your academic program or visit its commencement website for clarification on the requirements that must be met to be invited.

Commencement invitations are sent to all qualified students who have their degree conferred or who will be completed by the end of the 2024 summer semester. However, if you received this invitation in error and do not plan on completing all your degree requirements before the end of the summer semester, you must contact your advisor so they can have your record updated and your name removed from the commencement list.

If your record is not updated and your name appears in the 2024 commencement program as a candidate, you will not be eligible to be invited to a future ceremony.

WHAT TO DO and WHAT TO EXPECT

ASSEMBLY AND ROBING—ARRIVE EARLY

Candidates should plan to arrive when the Don Taft University Center doors open, at least one hour prior to their ceremony start time and proceed to the second floor of the RecPlex to main assembly area. The procession will begin promptly at the scheduled time.

Be aware that the arena doors will temporarily close to guests during the opening processional and the playing of The Star-Spangled Banner and reopen afterwards on a space-available basis.

DOOR OPENINGS, SEATING, AND TICKETS

Families, friends, and guests are invited to attend NSU Commencement ceremonies. Tickets are not required but seating in the Rick Case Arena at the Don Taft University Center is limited and available on a first-come, first-seated basis. Large groups of guests, wishing to sit together, should arrive when the arena doors first open—one hour prior to the published start time of the ceremony.

Due to the size of the Rick Case Arena and as a courtesy to all guests, the saving of seats is strictly prohibited.

Please be advised that the arena doors will temporarily close to guests during the opening processional and the playing of The Star-Spangled Banner and reopen afterwards on a space-available basis.

NO CHILDCARE SERVICE ON SITE

Candidates will not be permitted to bring children to the Recplex, on the arena floor, or on stage. The NSU Flight Deck offers a family-friendly environment conducive to guests with small children who may become restless due to the length of the ceremony.

SIMULCAST LOCATIONS

Guests will have the opportunity to view a live telecast of the ceremony via closed circuit television at three on-campus locations: the Flight Deck Pub and the Performing and Visual Arts Theater in the Don Taft University Center.

All NSU Commencement ceremonies are also video streamed in real time. Visit the NSU Commencement website and click on the “2024 Live-Stream Ceremony Links”. All commencement video streams are archived on the NSU Commencement website approximately one week after the ceremony.

PROGRAMS

An official printed program will be provided for all Commencement candidates at their seats. Commencement programs are available online for guests at nova.edu/commencement/.

WEAR APPROPRIATE ACADEMIC ATTIRE

Every candidate must wear approved cap and gown to participate in commencement. NSU regalia are blue for baccalaureate candidates and gray for all other degrees. No stiletto heels, tennis shoes or sneakers should be worn, please.

Articles of clothing that will be visible at the neck and below the gown should be in keeping with the conservative style of the academic attire. For master's and specialist degree candidates, the hood should be secured so that it will not slip off the shoulders. The cap, which may need bobby pins to stay on your head, is worn parallel to the ground.

- Baccalaureate degree candidates will wear their regalia to the graduation lineup site with their tassel to the right.
- Master's and Specialist degree candidates will wear their hoods throughout the entire ceremony with their tassel to the left.
- Doctoral degree candidates will carry their hoods on stage where they will be hooded with their tassel to the left. (watch Hooding Video)

Students are asked not to carry anything in the ceremony because, after crossing the stage, you may be placed in a different seat. Some Health Professions Division (HPD) candidates are required to recite their professional oaths, which can be found in the back of the commencement program. NSU commencement ceremonies are usually less than two-and-a-half hours in length so, please make sure to schedule enough time.

At the conclusion of commencement, everyone will stand while the Grand Marshal leads the stage party from the arena, followed by the faculty and candidates. Graduates must leave the Don Taft UC through the back exit. Guests are asked to remain in their seats until everyone has left the floor. Guests will meet their graduates outside the Don Taft UC.
