Inspire from A to Z by Jessica Diaz

Anything you want, you can have.

Belittling yourself
can stop you from achieving your goals.

Do what others can't,
even if the task is impossible.

Faith is what you need to get away from the pessimistic opinions.

Hatred can weaken a society.

Inspire and achieve the unknown.

Just learning the basics isn't enough.

Kinetic ideas will keep your brain constantly looking at how to work out life's problems.

Maybe if people decide not to follow what others have already done,

other ideas and theories can be created.

People have the power to make a difference.

Quitting is for people who don't work hard enough, not really fighting for what they want.

Sometimes following the path of others temporarily makes you feel like part of a group.

Usually, those who don't follow stand out.

Verifying your individuality will let others respect you even more

X marks the spot where you leave your mark in this world.

Zero chance I'm going to let this slip away.
