Wander

 by Jamie Cohen

the world is filled with wonder
sunlight and warmth
a playground, a promised land,
a field of swaying grass
and I will wander in it until it grows taller than I

I want to get lost in the tangles of this world and all it has to give and let the wind sing me songs that dance upon my ears

I want to climb to the top to pull and push with all my might to reach the peak above the field and to look around and laugh to smile upon the world a smirk, a devilish grin and to feel the sun around me I stand with outstretched fingertips

I will repeat the process every day I start anew from the tangles of this lawn to the top of the world

a playground, a promised land,
until I grow taller
