Ivory by Jamie Cohen

standing right here with arms open wide I wait for you to return to my side I sleep upon a promise that you'll come around, but it turns out to be smoke, not a fortuitous cloud
I see that yearning in your emerald eyes, jaded by hate, envy, green of despise
waiting for the turn of the tide you whisper you love me but you make me cry while you stare through me with jaded, emerald eyes
