Leaking by Jamie Cohen

these feelings are leaking slipping through the cracks of my mind black tar, pools into slick black puddles they drip where my eyes meet my tears painting thick, black streaks down my face these feelings are leaking I walk aimlessly through the streets with letters they'll never read, letters I write for me Bitter pills don't plug leaks I am falling into this again and drowning in a sea I want to drown, I do
But only when there are leaks
