Words fall out in no specific order.
Ridiculed and snickered at by all.
Lacking attention and self esteem,
he sits alone to think of his life.
Why, I ponder as I see him,
It isn't fair. Such a waste of life,
faults of all others but his own.
More difficulties lie ahead,
all of which he must endure.
Hating all for what he must endure.
Hating all for what he does not understand,
and always to sit alone.
More fearful are people of what they do not know,
for ignorance allows no explanation,
It only shields people from truth.
The child still sits alone.
