Master's Program for Child Care Administrators for Administrators of Day Care, Preschool and Early Education Programs 1989

Nova University
Nova University, in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, is an independent, nonprofit institution that is not tax-supported. It offers courses of study leading to bachelor's, master's, educational specialist, and doctoral degrees, on its main campus, through the State of Florida, and across the nation. Nova also provides community services and conducts research in a variety of fields.

Nova University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award bachelor's, master's, educational specialist, and doctoral degrees. Nova University admits students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin.
Nova University's Master's Program for Child Care Administrators is designed to meet the needs of busy directors. The program provides you with management training; a field-based, guided study format; and a chance to use your work environment as a learning laboratory.

Your studies will cover: administration of children's programs; policy and politics of child care; budgeting, legal compliance, and evaluation; and child development and curriculum. You will have an opportunity to apply what you have learned in a Practicum, in which you identify a problem in your setting and develop and implement a solution to the problem. You will share your progress through the program with other administrators entering at the same time as you. You will meet other members of your cohort at the institute and opportunities for joint problem solving will be provided. The 40 semester hour program is designed to be completed in two years.

Admission

Admission is open to administrators of programs for young children who:
1. have a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution;
2. are presently in an administrative position in a program for young children; and
3. provide evidence of ability for successful independent study at the graduate level.

Degree

Master of Science in Child Care Administration

Cost

The current tuition rate for the 40 credit hour program is $165 per credit. Each of the four modules of study requires a $200 materials fee. The total cost of the program is $7,450, which includes tuition and all texts, study guides, and supporting curriculum materials.
