Don't Date a Writer

The first kiss
on display
for all to see.
My lips,
your lips,
and whoever else
wants to read.

Your rough hands,
on me,
sending shivers
s l o w l y
down their spines too.
Your job
is to please me,
but I must
please them too.

My mind travels
to paper
and to pen,
thinking
and hoping to relive
this experience

again.

That far out look
I get in my eye,
if you thought
it was for you,
I'll let you
believe that lie.

Half of our story
is mine to tell,
and if you
can't perform
with an audience,
this won't
end well.
