Waiting

Stacy Lida

As I look over to him,
He doesn't even know I'm there.
Will he ever notice me?
That is the question left in the air.
I have loved him for years and years,
But all I have given him were my tears.
His eyes in the moonlight shine like stars.
His hair is as soft as silk.
Why can't he learn to love me?
Is that so hard to ask?
All these years of his not noticing me
I feel I live behind a mask.
Oh wait!
He is turning to look towards me, could it be that he finally will see
That my love for him goes on like a never-ending story?
As he walks slowly in my direction,
Can this become a beautiful relationship?
That is what I wait to see.
Maybe he finally loves me.
