The Beach

Dana Levy

A place where the sun rises, on a lovely day
People there come in all sizes, and go off their own way
A place to relax and be yourself, to let your mind go free Crashing waves, the blistering sun, That's where I want to be.
When I am stressed, that's where I go, to be all alone
Wind just blows right through my hair,
I can sit all day and zone
Troubles wash away and never come again,
Going to the beach has become a popular trend.
