Have You Ever Loved a Woman?

Jonathan Reiner

Have you ever loved a woman
So much it hurts deep down inside?
And as you love this woman
It eats up all your pride.
You know you cannot have her
But you still are going to try.

Have you ever loved a woman
So much that it's a sin?
And while she breaks your heart
She wears an evil grin.
Even though she is out of reach
You just won't give in.

Have you ever loved a woman
So much it is a crime?
Every time you meet her
You end up crying.
Although you have no chance
You still have to try.
