A Poem

Julia Brzhosnevskiy

A poem is a story
That depicts truth and reality,
Forgetting plain words
And meaning of propriety;
A collection of rhyme
Still obtaining simplicity,
Not wanting a crime
Or desiring publicity.
It defines someone's soul
In words so often used,
Has no single meaning at all
It's strange and confused.
It's easy to read
But interpreting is complex
And is there a need
To decipher its context?
A poem is a story
So read each one with care
Facts of downfall or glory
May soon become bare.
