My favorite jeans

It's not a full rip
It's the kind that looks like the seam stretched
Leaves an interesting line across the fabric
But doesn't render it useless
Yet, somehow, my fingers don't remember that
As they gently trace the fabric
Wondering how long ago it was Exactly how much bigger my thighs must have gotten
For something like that to happen
Wondering how much I weigh now
I'm not supposed to care about that anymore
My fingers scratch at the seam
I remind myself that these jeans are old
And only the old me cares if I fit in them
