The Stand

Julia Brzhosnevskiy

I stand alone in the midst of my worries
That are spinning around me.
I stand alone in the midst of my troubles
Swirling faster and faster.
I stand alone as the problems swirl more
To become a tornado.
I stand alone, fighting to remain on the ground
When the tornado tries to pull me in.
I stand still and alone forgotten by them.
I stand alone in the midst of the strongest winds
And the painful stinging of the dusty worries.
I stand alone as the world collapses beneath my feet.
I use all my strength to keep my balance
But I am still standing.
