Futility

Nikki Macrini

If you could see my thoughts
You'd cry at what I have to say
The fears I hold, my deepest shames
That haunt me every day

The hands I long to touch
Will never wipe away my tears
The words I long to hear
You've silenced from my waiting ears

The pride you store inside
Blocks you from reality
You try but still it blinds you
Is it the truth you cannot see?

I stretch so far to reach you
Is my struggle all in vain?
You are worth the effort
But is the effort worth this pain?
