Sunflower

Alyssa Willis

The beautiful flower blew in the wind.
A young child came running by.
She bent over, and plucked the flower from the ground.

The bright yellow sunflower wilted.
A sound of distress came from the girl's mouth.
She ran to her mother, sitting in the grass.

The mother comforts the yellow-haired child.
A soft cooing sound emanates from her mouth.
She falls asleep and the sunflower falls from her hand.
