Rainy Day

Leigh Sorkin

As I sit alone in my room my mind wanders into many different dimensions. Some are dark and deep and others are bright and joyous. As I hear the rain coming down on my window like bullets hitting a target, my mind begins to drift into a dark and deep dimension. I begin to think of all the wrong, pain, and suffering there is in this world. I ask myself why. Not being able to come up with a legitimate answer, I go outside and inhale the sting of the rain upon my skin and I answer my question.

It's because there is no umbrella.
