Oblivion

Julia Brzhosnevskiy

Oblivion is a fairy tale of reality
It is a book of shadows
A story with boundaries

Oblivion is life in a bubble
It is existence behind see-through walls
A path that runs through clouds

Oblivion is choosing not to know
It is a conscious denial
With subconscious acceptance

Oblivion is looking without seeing
It is recognition of blatant events
And seclusion from clandestine ones

Oblivion is a one-way mirror
When you're standing on the inside

Oblivion is a state of mind
It is a part of character
An enemy to awareness

Oblivion a heavy fog that does not disperse
Oblivion is security
