Elements

Julia Brzhosnevskiy

When minds are in a slumber
The sleeping clouds divide
A perfect dream I crumble
As elements collide

The earth and fire tempt me
The water rambles by
The air I breathe exempts me
From whispering goodbye

I fly above the rooftops,
A melody of lives,
An empty space by bus stops,
A desolate beehive

I fly to distant places
Where children huddle tight
Where there're no empty spaces
And people live to fight

When minds are in a slumber
The sleeping clouds divide
I heal the dreams that crumbled
As elements collide
